

Association of Independent Museums

Helping Heritage
Organisations Prosper

*Welcome to the first AIM eNews of 2021 -- EXTRACTS

Farewell Emma!

Emma Chaplin will be stepping down from her role as AIM Director at the end of March 2021. An AIM Council member from 2003 to 2014, Emma took up the role in 2018, overseeing a period of rapid development for the organisation and will be very much missed. Continue reading>>

Hallmarks at Home

We've released booking for our Hallmarks at Home sessions until the end of March. All sessions will give you practical advice and tips you can use right away so book now to secure your free place.

See the full schedule and book here>>

New CFG events to support you this spring

Charity Finance Group's events and training help finance managers grow skills, manage your organisation's finances more effectively, and feel supported through our thriving member community. Discounts for CFG members. Find out more>>

Museum news round up

Read the rest of this week's news from across the sector, including:

- The second round of the Culture Recovery Fund is open for applications via Arts Council England and National Lottery Heritage Fund. Both grant schemes close on 26 January. Find out which route is right for you and make your application here>>