Welcome to new Associate Supplier, Castleacre

Castleacre advise museums and galleries on the very specific risks that they face, arranging tailored insurance policies that protect commercial activities, collections, buildings, liabilities, loans and loss of revenue. As independent brokers they look for the best insurer for individual institutions, finding streamlined competitive cover. They provide 24-hour access to a senior advisor, and if a claim arises they work on your behalf to ensure compensation and settlements are resolved quickly by the insurer.
